Chancery court was in session several days this week, with Chancellor Woodward on the bench. There were no litigated cases, and the routine work on the docket was finished in a day or two.

Dr. Murphey returned home from Meridian this morning, where he went with Mr. Thos. McHenry. An X-ray examination showed that Mr. McHenry's shoulder was badly fractured and he went to Memphis for an operation.

Mr. Joe L. McMillin, who was formerly of the state staff of the Y. M. C. A., is now field officer for the Vocational Rehabilitation Board for Mississippi, Alabama and Florida, with headquarters in New Orleans. Mrs. McMillin left this morning to spend until Monday night with him.—Hattiesburg American, Dec. 8th.

Among the returned soldiers this week is Mr. Chas. Scales, Jr., from the aviation field at Miami, Fla. Noxubee was represented in the aviation part the service by Capt. Sam Hawkins, who is still at Mather's Field, Cal., Jessie Guy, in Texas, and Chas. Scales, Jr.

Mr. Thos. McHenry met with a serious auto accident last Saturday night, when the steering gear on his auto jammed in some manner and his car ran into the iron bridge across Woodward creek about a mile east of Mr. Leon Dent's. Mr. McHenry's shoulder was dislocated and badly bruised, and he was taken to Meridian Wednesday by Dr. Murphey to have an X-ray taken to find the extent of his injuries. Mr. George Wade and Mr. Lowrey were in the car and Mr. Wade was considerably bruised. Mr. Lowrey was also thrown out but escaped without injury.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Mosby, who have been in Meridian on a visit to Dr. Clements and family received a wire from their son, Mr. George Mosby last Thursday announcing his safe arrival from overseas. Hunters Go to the Delta.

Messrs. J. T. Sargent, Morgan and Stewart Adams, Allie Swann, Paul Augustus and Will Walker, left Tuesday for Hollandale, Washington county, for their annual big game hunt. They took along a fine pack of dogs and their little doubt they will have a great hunt. Here, hoping, they'll remember their friends with a saddle of venison.

Preachers for Noxubee.

A telegram was received this p. m. from Mr. Broyles who has been attending the Methodist conference in Clarksdale stating that he would go to Clarksdale, Rev. Olin Ray, who has been at Tunica, Miss., for several years, would take Mr. Broyles' place in Macon. Rev. Mr. Goad would go to Brooksville and Mr. Lauderdale, who is now at Brooksville, would take the Macon Circuit.

The news that Mr. and Mrs. Broyles will leave Macon will be generally regretted as they have endeared themselves, not only to their church people, but the public in general. Mr. Broyles has been a hard worker and an efficient leader in war work that has been conducted in the county, and much of the success of the work here is due to his management.

The man on the street says that Clarksdale needs a good preacher, and they have one in Mr. Broyles.

The Noxubee County Teachers Association wish to express their hearty thanks and appreciation to the public for their liberal patronage to the Red Cross Musical on Wednesday evening December 11th.
